

WITH particular observances, happy requiens and out-door restivities, the past week-end left many pleasant memories. The same informal galeties have prevailed throughout the week, with picnic, porch and have parties the magnet of general interest, all made possible by the cheery, sunshing weather. Boating and motoring are more popular than ever, city dwellers, unable to remain away for the summer, taking advantage of these conveyances to carry them to the many delightfully cool and attractive places that nature has so predigiously distributed to our away surrounding country. has so predigiously distributed to our own surrounding country.

However, the annual summer's exodus centinues, the past week witnessing the departure of many to seashore or mountain resorts. Newport still retains its popularity, claiming the largest number of local people, with Seaside, Cannon Beach and Cascade mountain outing places attracting many.

Among the Salem people who will spend their vacation at Cannon Beach will be the T. C. Smiths. Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Clay will spend their outing at Agate Reach, probably motoring over some time in September.

Mrs. Thomas B. Kay and daughter, Marjorie, left Thursday for Newport, where they will be guests of "The Damon" for two weeks or more.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Boise, their son, Breyman, and Mrs. M. E. Breyman are occupying a temporary camp at Ellendale, near Rickrent, where they are building a permanent summer cottage.

The Heary Thielsens have planned to take their outing in August, spending most of the time in Astoria. Miss Nell Thielsen will be entertained at Newport during the summer. Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner and daughters, Rita and Barbara, will leave tomorrow for Neskowin, taking up a summer residence.

The Cabrles McNarys are contemplating a delightful motor trip to be taken later in the summer, Mt. Rainier and other Washington scenic points to be included in their itinerary.

The W. H. Eldridges and Werner Breyman are enjoying an outing at the Log Cabin inn on the McKenzie river.

Mrs. William Boot, Mrs. Asahel Bush and son, Asahel Fourth, left today for

The Breakers, the exclusive watering place of Washington.

Mrs. Melvin Plimpton and children, Janet and Sherman, will depart for Seaview early in August, to remain throughout the summer.

Cloud Cap inn will be included in the A. N. Moores motor trip, which they will take some time later in the summer. Later they will visit Newport, so

HE children hadn't been told an animal story for some time, and daddy thought it was high time to tell one. "How about a story of some little baby pigs?" asked daddy.

"We would love to hear a story about some pigs," said Evelyn. "We haven't heard a story about pigs for ever and ever so long." "Now, that is true," said Jack. "Do tell us one tonight."

"The pig family that I am going to tell you about were having the best time you can possibly imagine, as they loved having day after day of warmth and sunshine. So they were perfectly happy.
